Young artists at Marist College, Emerald, have gained some attention recently taking out prizes in the local Minerva Art Competition run by Sojitz Minerva Mine.

The college took out first prize in the secondary schools section with Year 10 student Kim Leo receiving an Individual Encouragement Award and Year 12 student, Elanah Stewart’s, work requested for acquisition.

The competition was themed “Why we live where we live” and featured relief prints, self-portraits, etchings, mixed media, ceramics and acrylic pieces.
